AMERICAN PSYCHIATRIC ASSOCIATION
WWW.PSYCH.ORG

Member Driven. Science Based. Patient Focused.

LEARN FROM A GLOBAL NETWORK.

Join the American Psychiatric Association (APA) and become part of the world's largest psychiatric membership organization. Our 38,000 members are physicians specializing in the diagnosis, treatment, and prevention of mental illnesses.

For over 160 years, the APA has provided the tools and resources to nurture and preserve the profession. We are dedicated to promoting the highest quality care for patients, providing continuing education and research into mental illnesses, and advocating for psychiatrists and their profession. Our broad network unites the world's psychiatrists, bringing together practice, education, and research at all levels.

JOIN APA NOW AND SAVE ON UPCOMING MEETINGS!

BECOME AN APA INTERNATIONAL MEMBER TODAY! In the years ahead, you can depend on the APA to provide invaluable resources to help advance your career, as well as strengthen the future of psychiatry for you and your patients. Take advantage of our many member benefits, including:

Networking

- Exchange ideas with colleagues worldwide at the APA Annual Meeting and Institute on Psychiatric Services conferences and through APA's listservs, an ideal forum to discuss psychiatric issues and share practice management.
- Receive discounted rates at the 2009 APA Annual Meeting:

Income Category:*	Meeting Registration Fees:
	2009 Rates	Advance	On Site
High Income	$505	$580
Upper Middle Income	$430	$505
Lower Middle Income	$355	$430
Low Income	$280	$355

* Please see World Bank country list on back cover to determine your country of residence income group category.

- Easy access to cutting-edge psychiatric research through a database of clinical and health services delivery issues; and Psychiatric Research Report, a research newsletter.
- Privileged access to "members only" content on www.psych.org. Members also receive email updates from APA with useful information that could impact your practice and your patients.

Lifelong Learning and Continuing Medical Education (CME)

- Free online CME – Eight practice guideline courses (with certificate), including new courses on obsessive compulsive disorder and acute stress and posttraumatic stress disorders.
- World-class continuing education resources. The APA offers many ways to help you stay current on the latest advances in the psychiatric field. Psychiatrists can earn continuing education credits by attending the APA Annual Meeting and Institute on Psychiatric Services, completing online CME courses, and subscribing to Focus, The Journal of Lifelong Learning in Psychiatry, a quarterly journal and self-assessment program. Many of these resources are offered to APA members at special discounted rates.

Resources for You and Your Practice

- HealthyMinds.org is a comprehensive resource for psychiatrists and their patients seeking information regarding psychiatric care. Please visit the American Psychiatric Association's, HealthyMinds.org web site for psychiatric news and information.

The Latest Research and Clinical Studies

- More than 700 titles from American Psychiatric Publishing, Inc. (APPI). Purchase books and journals at www.appi.org at a special 10% "members only" discount. APPI offers an evolving catalog of resources for your professional library including books in 29 languages – from "mini-guides" and journals to indispensable reference manuals such as DSM-IV TR, available in hardcover, paperback, and online.
- Free online subscription to The American Journal of Psychiatry, the nation's oldest specialty journal, which covers all the latest clinical, biological, and research-oriented initiatives in psychiatric medicine.
- Free online subscription to Psychiatric News, the bimonthly newspaper of the APA. Get updates on news that impacts our profession, including health care economics and service delivery issues, education and training, and international news.
